Summer Time Camping

Morgan and his support worker, Sam, have been camping at Narawntapu National Park!

They went fishing at the beach, walked on the estuary and beach, made fruit salad for brekky, cooked pizza and toasties on the Webber, and did plenty of relaxing around the fire!

They also got to meet a friendly wallaby that Morgan got to pet and feed!

Before heading home, Morgan and Sam went to the information office and looked at all the taxidermy animals before going for a quick walk in the national park.
