Games Night

Our Friday night games night have been a roaring success! Thank you to Andrej who brought in his game of Twister for everyone to have fun with – see Madi and Brooke, and Logan and Madi. Other favourites are The Game of Life and the classic UNO. Games nights are a free event for CSP participants – so come along and meet some very friendly people and have a great night!

Catch Us At The Disability Expo!

We will be at the Disability Expo in Burnie this year!

The Disability Expo is a free event organised by Speak Out, aimed to connect families, carers and people living with a disability to the services, supports, and products they require.

Everyone is welcome to come along and enjoy the free expo that is organised by the community, for the community.

Date: Tuesday 9th of November

Time: 9:30 am – 4:30 pm

Cost: Free

Address: Burnie Arts & Function Centre – 77-79 Wilmot Street, Burnie

Postponing The Bee Hut Opening Day

After several successful events at The Bee Hut we have decided to postpone our opening day until we locate to a bigger venue...(which we could use some help with!)

Due to overwhelming interest and a consideration for these uncertain times with COVID19, we have decided to postpone our opening day of The Bee Hut

We apologise for any inconvenience this may have caused anyone

Watch this space for more information on our new venue...

Halloween & Haunted House

The Halloween night & haunted house was an absolute ball. There were some incredible costumes and characters on the night! Thank you to everyone who helped make the food and organise games and activities, and a special thank you to everyone who came along and just had fun ☺

We can't wait until next year...
